Anne Haaning INFINITY SCROLL

15 May – 5 June 2026

Statens Kunstfond præmierer "Infinity Scroll"

"Udstillingen udmærker sig ved et gennemtænkt, strukturelt greb om TITLED Gallerys rammer. Værket er umiddelbart kropsligt tilgængeligt: gulvet er dækket af sand, og en voksfigur af en astronaut i kropsstørrelse er placeret centralt i en totalinstallation, hvor rummet er svært helt at afgrænse. Skulpturens størrelse, proportion og placering er afstemt efter stedet og indgår i en dialog med arkitekturen. Sandet bliver et andet, men relativt simpelt greb, der gør det muligt at tilgå udstillingens komplekse spørgsmål på en humoristisk og umiddelbar måde. Haaning bruger denne præmis til at undersøge, hvordan digitale opfindelser og skærmt teknologier definerer, styrer og indsnævrer vores blik på os selv og kosmos.

Værket omfatter voksskulpturen bøjet under en selfiering, videoer, akvareller samt historisk arkivmateriale. Det trækker på et associativt referencerum, der forbinder SETIobservatoriets søgen efter radiosignaler i rummet med Carl Sagans foredragsskides fra 1960'erne, Whole Earth Catalog og nutidens mønstergenkendelse i kunstig intelligens (AI).

Haaning omsætter komplekse videnskabelige, teknologiske og kulturhistoriske komponenter til et stramt formsprog. Det er en styrke ved værket, at det formår at bevare det gådefulde og undersøgende som en bærende kvalitet, samtidig med at det forholder sig til faktisk fysiske rammer."

Kunstnerisk kvalitet af høj karakter skal anerkendes

Kunstfonden tildeler hvert år præmieringer til kunstnere og institutioner, som har skabt et værk eller en udstilling af særlig høj kunstnerisk kvalitet. En præmiering er altså et ekstra skulderklap til dem, der har gjort sig særlig bemærket inden for et bestemt kunstområde.
